

3A VOCABULARY Air travel

A The aisle is the 'passage' in the middle of a plane.	B You need to show your boarding pass before you can get on the plane.	C The check-in desk is where your bags are weighed and your ID is checked.
D You take a domestic flight if you're flying in your country.	E If you have excess baggage, it means that it weighs more than what the airline permits.	F You sometimes have to fill in a landing card before you go through passport control.
G The departures board will tell you which gate your flight is leaving from.	H You can usually only take one item of hand-luggage with you onto the plane.	I It's illegal to bring plants or fresh fruit and vegetables into some countries.
J You can get jet lag when you travel between several time zones and feel very tired.	L A flight which goes across continents is usually called a long-haul flight.	M You have to go through a metal detector to check that you aren't carrying a weapon.
N Sitting next to noisy/naughty children on a long flight can be very annoying.	O Most people book their flights and hotels online nowadays, although some still go to a travel agent's.	P When you arrive at your destination, you need to pick up your bags at Baggage reclaim.
Q You often have to queue to get through passport control.	R The Runway is where the planes take off and land.	S Everybody has to go through Security before getting into the departure lounge to make sure they're not carrying prohibited items.
T During a flight, there might be some Turbulence, when the plane can move up and down quite violently.	U When you get back home, you have to security your suitcase and put your clothes away.	V You need a visa to get into some countries if you're not from there, e.g. Russia and the USA.
W You sometimes have to wait for a long time if your flight's delayed.

ACTIVATION

In pairs, go through the alphabet and remember the words about air travel.